CHATTANOOGA, TN (December 21, 2014): Leaders of Executive Resources International (ERI) announced an upcoming course for law enforcement personnel. The 2015 Dignitary/ Executive Protection Course will be held at the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office Dignitary Protection Unit (DPU) beginning July 12, 2015 and concluding July 17, 2015.

The training will feature a keynote address by former U.S. Attorney General Alberto Gonzales. ERI President David Sowder noted that the training is P.O.S.T. certified for and limited to members of law enforcement. He notes that the class hours are long with an extremely high learning curve.

"Now more than ever, it's important for professionals in our industry to be well-prepared and well-trained for the challenges they face in their daily work," said Sowder. "Our team provides training courses throughout the year to assist those who do so much to protect others. We look forward to providing this training and know it will fill up quickly."

Sheriff Jim Hammond agrees. "The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office Dignitary Protection Unit is one of the best in the country," said Sheriff Hammond. "From Members of Congress to Executives in controversial situations, law enforcement and those providing these services must do so professionally and discretely. This class provides in-depth hands-on training that will well prepare individuals and we welcome students to our DPU."
